Heritage Bank Heritage Bank is the biggest customer owned or mutual bank in Australia, and has over $8.5 Billion in assets. The bank with the slogan 'People First' is actually known to provide highly valuable and cost effective financial products and services, such as home loans, car loans, mortgage loans, credit card, wealth management services, small business loans, personal loans, and so on. The Heritage Bank has 61 branches in South East Queensland, and has an office in every state capital in Australia. The Heritage Bank provides its banking and financial products through the nationwide network of mortgage brokers as well. At present, the Heritage Bank employs over 700 staff approximately and has 100 retail outlets throughout South Queensland. As the bank does not have any shareholders, each and every customer of the bank is a collective owner of the bank. The mutual status of the bank helps the Heritage Bank to reinvest the profits, and provide highly beneficial financial products and services to its customer base. As a financial institution that has been operating for over 135 years, the bank has immense experience in the sector and has a legacy of putting the interest of its customers first and hence, the tag line – 'People First'.
