My Credit Union Limited - Australian Finance Directory My Credit Union Limited began in 1967 with the establishment of Statehealth Credit Union through employees banding together at a NSW Department of Health. Statehealth Credit Union and Transport Industries Credit Union merged and Industries Mutual Credit Union (IMCU) was formed. In 2005, Hunter Coast Credit Union joined while Capital Credit Union joined in 2008 and finally in 2011, Industries Mutual Credit Union merged with Resources Credit Union to form My Credit Union. My Credit Union Limited offers various financial solutions to its members. It offers various types of loans such as personal loans, home loans, car loans and credit facilities. Moreover, a wide range of insurance options are also available such as home & contents insurance, car insurance, loan repayment insurance, travel insurance, landlords insurance and life insurance. Furthermore, it also offers everyday accounts, savings accounts and term deposits account. In addition financial planning and superannuation is also provided. Internet, mobile and phone banking services are also available at My Credit Union. Unlike banks which make billion dollar profits from their customers to return to their stakeholders as dividends, the company only seek to make small profits to keep our business strong for the sustainable future. My Credit Union pass on its potential profits to its members through lower loan rates, higher deposit rates and low fees It aim to be big enough to provide competitive financial services, whilst still small enough to provide personal service which credit unions are famous for.
