WAW Credit Union Co-Operative Limited - Australian Finance Directory
WAW Credit Union Co-Operative Limited was founded in 1976 with the amalgamation of Wangaratta and Wodonga Co-operatives; a new Service Centre was established at Albury in 1979; and the name of the Credit Union was changed in April 1980 to WAW Credit Union Co-operative Limited. Later mergers saw the addition of the Beechworth and Ovens Credit Union (1989), Bandiana Credit Union (1998), B-W Albury Credit Union (2002), and Albury Murray Credit Union (2002). WAW Credit Union Co-Operative Limited offers a full range of accounts and services. It includes loans such as home loans, business loans, green loans and personal loans. Moreover, WAW offers a wide range of insurance options through QBE insurance such as home & contents insurance, car insurance, motorcycle insurance, caravan & trailer insurance, CTP green slip, health insurance, travel insurance, marine insurance, rural small farm insurance, commercial insurance, mortgage protection insurance, landlords insurance and loan protection insurance. Furthermore, it also offers transaction accounts, savings accounts and business accounts. In addition, financial planning is also provided through Quadrant. Besides all the services, Visa debit card and MyCard MasterCard is also provided as well as internet, mobile and phone banking services. WAW Credit Union's mission is to operate a responsive, values-driven, co-operative financial institution that provides financial and community benefits to members and the region in a sustainable manner. The company aims to be the best value provider of smart banking services to the communities it serves.
