

121 Cardigan Street
Carlton, Victoria 3053
Australia

Phone: 13 63 73
Fax: 03 9349 3113

BankVic (Police Financial Services Limited) Police Financial Services Limited, also known as Police Credit is a credit union in Australia. The bank was incorporated in 1974 by a small group of officers and has been offering their services for more than 40 years. The bank is owned by the members who are all equal shareholders. On 1 June 2013, Police Credit Bank was renamed as BankVic. Currently, bank has more than 97,000 members. The bank also supports a number of police, health and community organizations like the Blue Ribbon Foundation and the Limbs 4 Life. BankVic is one of the largest Mutual Banks in Victoria with an estimated asset of $1.3b. In 2014, it was awarded the Canstar Customer Owned Banking Institution of the Year 2014. Earlier, the bank won the Money magazine Credit Union of the Year in 2013. Police Credit offer variety of financial services to the specific sector of the society that includes police, emergency services, health industry and the government departments as well as to their families and friends. Loans are the major offerings made by the bank that includes home loans, investment loans, car loans, personal loans, travel loans, and more. In addition, they offer savings and investment accounts, credit cards, wealth management services, insurance and more. They also have special Young Adult programs where they offer unique banking services to young adults and students at great value.

BSB: 704-230

