

Credit Union Australia Ltd

83 York St
Sydney, New South Wales 2000
Australia

Phone: (020 9246 2140

Credit Union Australia Ltd - CUA Credit Union Australia Ltd or CUA is a Public Company, ranked 589 in the top 2000 companies in Australia. Formerly known as Queensland Postal Cooperative Credit Union, the company was founded in 1966 with its base in Brisbane, Australia. It switched to its current name in 1980. It provides its membership only to permanent residents of Australia. It is Australia's largest customer-owned financial institution. In 2014 the company generated total revenue of $649,756,000 including sales and other revenue. It employs a staff of approximately 25 people. Started with the idea of giving Australians a fairer deal, it provides an extensive range of banking and financial services to its members in Australia at better interest rates and lower fees which give any big bank a run for their money. CUA provides its members a vast range of products and services like everyday accounts, savings and term deposits, Real estate and personal loans, home loans, commercial loans, commercial overdrafts and finance, vehicle and equipment finance, debit cards, credit cards, redicards, various insurance products including health products, travel services and insurance, investment options, financial planning, online and mobile banking, as well as international financial products for insurance and foreign money needs.

BSB: 814-282

Visit Website
Send Message
Email Friend

