

88 Phillip Street
Sydney, New South Wales 2000
Australia

Phone: (02) 8259 5000

Royal Bank of Scotland (RBS) Australia Established in Australia in 1988, the Royal Bank of Scotland comprises of both Corporate & Institutional Banking. Both of them have a common ethos and work closely to provide clients with world-class products, effortless execution and deep insights into markets and industries around the globe. Involved in all major business markets and financial hubs, it strives to provide exemplary services in debt financing, risk management and transaction services. It offers various kinds of services. Its debt financing services include bonds, loans and covered bonds; Secured corporate debt products; Liability management; structured finance as well as ratings advice. It helps clients get a seamless trading and competitive pricing along with risk management through debt capital markets, electronic trading, foreign exchange, investor products and research and trading strategy. It offers daily smooth transactions by transaction services, electronic channels, liquidity and investment management, payables and receivables, trade finance and fund services. It offers a comprehensive risk management product and services tailored to each client's risk appetite and ambition for growth. Its scale, global reach and market access allows it to meet the liquidity needs across various strata's. Lastly, it allows its client to operate complex businesses with multiple products globally both physically and online.

BSB: MULTI

Visit Website
Send Message
Email Friend

