

Standard Chartered Bank

345 George St
Sydney, New South Wales 2000
Australia

Phone: (02) 9232 9333

Standard Chartered Bank - Sydney, Australia Standard Chartered Bank is a British multinational banking and financial company, headquartered in London. With over 1,700 branches and outlets, it operates in over 71 countries. It opened its office in Australia in 1964 and now employs more than 30 staff. It offers specialized banking products in Asia, Africa, Middle East, Australia and New Zealand. With nearly 50 years of banking experience in Australia, it operates under a foreign branch license. In Australia, its aim is to facilitate trade and investment flows between Australia and New Zealand and the bank's footprint of Asia, Middle East and Africa. It aspires to become the "Core International Bank of Choice" for Australian Corporate and Financial Institutions in Asia, Africa and Middle East. Operating through a single branch in Sydney, The bank offers a full range of products and native Corporate and institutional clients involved in cross-border business. These are delivered by the SCB network in Asia, Africa and the Middle East in sync with its 'origination strategy' as any domestic offering is restrictive and limited. Its wide range of financial solutions include financing, guarantees, remittances, fund settlement, trade finance, custody, Global Markets, project finance, syndications and corporate advisory business.

BSB: MULTI

Visit Website
Send Message
Email Friend

